

Your comments, questions and concerns are important to your Board and the Management Team.

To help provide another vehicle for submitting your feedback, a drop box has been added in the main lobby. There are feedback submission forms available in the pocket on the side of the drop box. We look forward to reading the comments provided, and understand what is going well, what can be improved and what could be considered in future conversations.

